Who does God want us to be? Matthew 16:13-19
Son of Man, Son of God(this is the Message version)

13 When Jesus arrived in the villages of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "What are people saying about who the Son of Man is?" 14 They replied, "Some think he is John the Baptizer, some say Elijah, some Jeremiah or one of the other prophets." 15 He pressed them, "And how about you? Who do you say I am?" 16 Simon Peter said, "You're the Christ, the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

17-18 Jesus came back, "God bless you, Simon, son of Jonah! You didn't get that answer out of books or from teachers. My Father in heaven, God himself, let you in on this secret of who I really am. And now I'm going to tell you who you are, really are. You are Peter, a rock. This is the rock on which I will put together my church, a church so expansive with energy that not even the gates of hell will be able to keep it out. 19 And that's not all. You will have complete and free access to God's kingdom, keys to open any and every door: no more barriers between heaven and earth, earth and heaven. A yes on earth is yes in heaven. A no on earth is no in heaven."

Jesus asks the disciples who they believe he is. Simon, as he was still named then, believes Jesus is the Son of God and is not afraid to say so. In response, Jesus gives Simon a new name – Peter (Rock in Greek) and tells him that he will have the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Simon Peter was just an ordinary fisherman, but Jesus, wanting to build his Church on strong foundations, recognised Simon Peter's faith was strong; rock like! Peter is one of the greatest leaders of the early Church. How can Simon Peter inspire us in our own life in the coming week? Can we be strong in our faith and speak up for what we believe in?

<https://youtu.be/4ljSWD3rMAA-> - Peter's declaration

<https://youtu.be/Bul6bY22XLE> Who do people say I am?

In Peter, we see an example of how good Christian leaders are grounded by their faith in Jesus.

- We rely on leaders to guide us and to challenge us.
- Who are the leaders of our Church today?
- Why is it important for our Church to have good leaders
- What question did Jesus ask his disciples?
- What answers do the disciples give?
- And then what does Jesus ask?
- Who speaks for the disciples?

Jesus recognizes Peter as an important leader because Peter professes his belief that Jesus is the Messiah. Jesus commends Peter for this, not because he came to this belief on his own, but because God allowed Peter to recognize Jesus as his only Son. Peter played an important role in the early Christian community and helped to build the Church.

OK- look these 3 people up on the internet (another time if not possible today)

- Jackie Pullinger
- Brother Andrew
- Mother Teresa

Find out, briefly, what these people did and how they first knew where God wanted them to be- this might have been discussion with others/Bible study/watching what others did etc

Each one was a committed Christian, but each one heard God's call in a different way. Each has an amazing story and each one has helped countless people.

God speaks to us in so many different ways doesn't he?

Can you think of any people in the Bible who responded to God's different callings?

1 Peter 2: 4-12 (this is from The Message)

4-8 Welcome to the living Stone, the source of life. The workmen took one look and threw it out; God set it in the place of honour. Present yourselves as building stones for the construction of a sanctuary vibrant with life, in which you'll serve as holy priests offering Christ-approved lives up to God. The Scriptures provide precedent: Look! I'm setting a stone in Zion, a cornerstone in the place of honour. Whoever trusts in this stone as a foundation will never have cause to regret it. To you who trust him, he's a Stone to be proud of, but to those who refuse to trust him. The stone the workmen threw out is now the chief foundation stone. For the untrusting it's a stone to trip over, a boulder blocking the way. They trip and fall because they refuse to obey, just as predicted. 9-10 But you are the ones chosen by God, chosen for the high calling of priestly work, chosen to be a holy people, God's instruments to do his work and speak out for him, to tell others of the night-and-day difference he made for you—from nothing to something, from rejected to accepted. 11-12 Friends, this world is not your home, so don't make yourselves cosy in it. Don't indulge your ego at the expense of your soul. Live an exemplary life among your people so that your actions will refute their prejudices. Then they'll be won over to God's side and be there to join in the celebration when he arrives.

Have a look at the following pictures in the PDF below and see if they are similar to what you might think holiness looks like:

Spend a moment looking at each picture and think about how they might help you understand holiness a little more?

Have a look in a dictionary and see what it says about the word holiness then have a look at what the biblical definition is- only do this if you are feeling particularly interested though!

This is about the whole book of 1 Peter so you will need a bible or bring it up on:
