"The years go by, dear Lord...." Based on Psalm 71

The years go by, dear Lord, and my store of memories swells, and the reasons for regret, or doubt or distress increase. As I become older, I am ever more aware of the frailty of my flesh and find myself increasingly anxious about the future. Bless me, I pray, with a renewed sense of your protection, heal the memories that still cause me pain, and kindle in me the gift of hope for what is yet to come, that I may sing your praise with the integrity of my years.

The Very Revd Dr Stephen Cherry, Dean of King's College, Cambridge
