Dear Sam

This Sunday at St Peter's there will be the 8am BCP service followed by 9am Parish Communion and then our 10.30am Sunday Central service.

At Blessed Mary it is our Sunday Funday service at 11am

Please have a good read through all the notices below and may I especially highlight the need for more sidespeople and opportunities to support the WATSAN Trip by coming to the Sunday Lunches and through 'Hunt and Sons - Decorators and DIY' and 'Hunt's Limousine Hire - Airport Taxis'!

With my prayers for the week ahead

Revd James

Urgent Request

We would welcome more people to help as Sidespeople at our 9.00am Parish Communion and also at other times when needed – at combined Services such as Easter, Harvest and Christmas, Good Friday and Choral Evensong. Duties include Welcome, handing out hymn books and Service sheets, at Parish Communion taking up the Ciborium (wafers) and any money donations to the Priest at the Altar. At the end of all Services Sidespeople collect all the books and Service sheets and generally tidy the pews for future Services.

If you would like to help in this way please speak to one of the Churchwardens or speak to Susan Tatton-Brown either by phone 892710 or email: susan.tb72@gmail.com Your help will be very much appreciated.

Passion Play Meeting

If you would like to be involved in the Passion Play this year, please attend the meeting at the United Free Church on Basingwell St on Tuesday 16th January at 7.45pm.

Dear members of St. Peter's and Blessed Mary, we are so very grateful for the donation of £2,000. Your support is invaluable to us to help us ensure that families feel supported and empowered to face and resolve their problems. No family should feel isolated or helpless in challenging times. This donation will help us achieve our purpose, to support parents and help them turn bad days into better tomorrows.
